 Warm Up To You

“Not only did Madelyn own the stage, but she grabbed your attention effortlessly”

-Cosign Magazine

Madelyn Brene is more than a singer, she is a powerhouse brand that spans music, fashion, self produced shows, education and entrepreneurship, but best known for her smooth soprano vocals steeped in a melodic, soulful sound. Dawning a new genre of music classical soul, this formally trained artist has spent over 20 years perfecting a progressive sound that is all her own.

Her passion for music developed at an early age, leading her to study opera at Southern Methodist University. Realizing she had a gift that could lead her into her making a career of music, Madelyn has been able to perfect her craft, being able to effortlessly reach whistle-tone pitches and sultry lower register vocal styles. In addition to her formal training, the songstress has also had the opportunity to learn from many esteemed hands on experiences. Having been a featured vocalist for the likes Michelle Williams of Destiny's Child, Kenny Latimore, Tony Award winner Karen Ziemba, Jennifer Holiday, and many more. Madelyn has also had the honor to perform as the “2nd Lady” in Mozart’s DieZauberflöte at the Almafì Coast Music Festival in Naples, Italy.

As one who has continuously expanded the presence of her multifaceted brand, Madelyn has made a name for herself as an actress, model, brand influencer and educator with features in commercials and representation of brands such as TGIF, SIX Flags over Texas, Purina Puppy and staged shows Ragtime, Harriet Jacob, Aint Misbehavin

As a prestigious member of the Grammy Recording Academy, Madelyn’s passion for singing and songwriting has formulated countless crafted shows and independent recording projects set to release fall 2018.
